

The Do Not Call list in New Jersey is something that needs to be in place because the amount of calls I would receive in one day before I signed up for the Do Not Call list, I believe impeded my quality of life. Please don't get rid of something that has finally stopped my phone from ringing endlessly throughout the day and into the early evening.